

DISPATCH

SECRET

TO: Chief, Africa Division
 Chief, EN
 Chief of Station, Germany

FROM: Acting Chief, Munich Liaison Base

SUBJECT

Salah FILALI

ACTION REQUIRED - REFERENCES

FYI

Ref: AAW-266, 5 November 1962

The following additional information has come to our attention concerning FILALI and Hans RECHENBERG:

a. FILALI has also used the alias

Monsieur * MASSAS

in Germany.

b. FILALI drives a Mercedes, license number KH-C 608, registered to Salah FILALI, Bad Kreuznach, Germany, Kurhausstr. 8. RECHENBERG left Germany circa 1 November for Tunis and Algiers, expecting to arrive on 12 November in Algiers. However RECHENBERG was driving FILALI's Mercedes to Algiers and expected to be delayed until ca 19 November due to an accident he had in Italy on 5 November.

c. On 12 November RECHENBERG wrote from Tunis that he was having difficulties getting a visa for Algeria since a recommendation from the West German Embassy was required and the Ambassador, Dr. SCHMIDT, felt the situation was too dangerous in Algeria. RECHENBERG wrote that he would have no great trouble getting a visa through other channels.

d. The Algiers address given for FILALI in EGMA 60219 (forwarded by reference to Algiers) is probably that of his parents.

e. FILALI was in Germany or Switzerland as of 12 November but was expected to return to Algiers in time to meet RECHENBERG.
